2015 School Leaders
Speeches
Our 2015 school leader nominees have been writing and practicing their election speeches. They will be making their election speech next Monday November 24 at 9 am. Parents of nominees are welcome to attend.

Salvation Army
Mufti day
This Friday November 21 we will be holding a mufti day with a gold coin donation. Money raised is presented to the Windsor Salvation Army Christmas Appeal which supports families in our area.

Robin Hood's Asian Quest
Well done everybody!
Our musical was certainly a performance that we can be proud of as students, parents and staff of Windsor South Public School.
The performance was brilliant, the organisation fantastic and the cooperation between all our students exceptional. Special thanks to Mrs Towner and Ms Telfer for the directing prowess and Ms Telfer for her writing skills.

Special Performance
Next Tuesday we will be hosting a performance by a group from the Salvation Army at Windsor.

Mufti Day
This Friday, November 21
Gold Coin Donation to Salvation Army Christmas Appeal

This group are soon to be travelling to Cambodia and we are privileged to be part of their rehearsal program.

School Hours
Please ensure your child is at school on time. Our morning assembly and the beginning of the day in classrooms are essential parts of setting up student’s routine for the day.

Thank you for your cooperation.
