Hawkesbury Athletics Carnivals
Next Wednesday and Friday, August 20 and 22 we will be sending teams to the Hawkesbury District Athletics Carnivals at McMahon Park Kurrajong.

Parents of students who qualified for district have been notified and will need to complete and return the permission slip ASAP.

Congratulations to all those who qualified and good luck in your respective event.

Go you Southies!

Visiting International Students
Our visiting students from America and Japan had a great time being entertained by our choirs and boys dance group.

They then participated in some bush dancing with all students before retiring to the staffroom to a feast of lamingtons, Tim Tams, vegemite scrolls and other Aussie delicacies.

Netball Gala Day
Congratulations to our netball teams who had some wins and some losses at last Fridays netball gala day.

As always our sportsmanship and behaviour off the court was exemplary.

Well done Southies!

Touch Football Gala Day
This Friday we will be sending a team to Bensons Lane Richmond for a Touch Football Gala Day.

Good luck team!

Live Tunes Concert
Today a group of our senior students will be attending Windsor High School to view the Live Tunes Concert.

The concert gives the Performing Arts students from the high school an opportunity to perform in front of an audience.

Visiting Storyteller
Next Thursday we will be hosting a visiting storyteller, Franè Les-sac.

All classes will get an opportunity to participate in this session as Franè talks about her role as an author / illustrator

Flu Season
You may have seen in the media that Sydney is experiencing a record high level of influenza cases.

Where you need to keep your child home please ensure notes explaining the reason for absence are supplied to the school. This is a legal requirement.

Peter Hayes
Principal

Our school is sponsored by Windsor Leagues Club Ltd through their Cash Housie Wednesday Nights at 7:30pm
